Introduction

God desires that our lives are filled with love for Him and His people. He wants us to journey through life by His wisdom and guidance. He wishes that we prosper financially and be in good health, soul and body. If you are married, intend to, or have children, God wants you to have a great family. And if you are in Christian ministry like myself, you are designed to be extraordinary like Jesus.

The purpose of these Meditation Notes therefore is to help you be all that God wants you to be in every area of life. By speaking them out loud to yourself, these power-filled confessions from the Holy Bible will spiritually impact your heart and your mind will progressively be renewed. Then you will experience radical yet positive changes in your love walk, character, decision making, finances, health and family.

By verbally meditating on God's Word, Joshua was assured of prosperity and success (Joshua 1:8). We too, as we give ourselves wholly to these meditation notes, our progress and development will be evident to all (1 Timothy 4:15), and to ourselves.

This is Volume 2 - Wisdom and Guidance. Other volumes are Volume 1 - Love and Character, Volume 3 - Prosperity and Favour, Volume 4 - Family and Marriage, Volume 5 - Health and Well-Being and Volume 6 - Ministry.

The Lord has given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him who is weary. He awakens me morning by morning, He awakens my ear to hear as the learned; He has opened my ear and I am not rebellious (50:4,5)

I follow after righteousness and I seek the Lord; I look to the rock from which I was hewn, and to the hole of the pit from which I was dug. I look to Abraham my father, and to Sarah: For God called him alone, and blessed him and increased him (51:1,2)

I listen to God and I am not fearful of the reproach of men, nor am I afraid of their insults (51:7)

As the rain comes down, and the snow from heaven, and do not return there, but water the earth, and make it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so is God's Word that goes forth from His mouth; it shall not return to Him void, but it shall accomplish what He pleases, and it shall prosper in the thing for which He sent it (55:10,11)

My fasting loosens the bonds of wickedness, undoes the heavy burdens, lets the oppressed go free, and breaks every yoke. I share my bread with the hungry and bring to my house the poor who are cast out; when I see the naked I cover him, and I do not hide myself from my own flesh. Therefore my light breaks forth like the morning, and my healing springs forth speedily; my righteousness goes before me and the glory of the Lord is my rear guard; when I call the Lord answers me, when I cry He says, "Here I am." I take away the yoke from my midst, the pointing of the finger, and speaking wickedness, I extend my soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul. I arise and shine for my light has come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon me. For darkness covers the earth, and deep darkness the people, but the Lord arises over me and His glory is seen upon me. The sun is no longer my light by day; nor for the brightness does the moon give light to me; but the Lord is to me an everlasting light and my God my glory. My sun never goes down, nor does my moon withdraw itself; for the Lord is my everlasting light (60:1,2,19,20)

As a beast goes down into the valley, and the Spirit of the Lord causes him to rest, so the Lord leads me to make Himself a glorious name (63:14)

This is the covenant that God made with me: He put His law in my mind, and wrote it on my heart; He is my God and I am His. No more shall anyone teach me saying, "Know the Lord," for I know Him. For He has forgiven my iniquity and my sin He remembers no more (31:33,34)

I delight in the law of God according to the inward man (7:22)

I do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death. God condemned sin in the

I set my mind on the things of the Spirit (8:5)

I am a son of God, so I am led by the Spirit (8:14)

The Spirit helps in my weaknesses. For I do not know what to pray for as I ought, but the Spirit Himself makes intercession for me with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for me according to the will of God (8:26,27)

But I put on the Lord Jesus and make no provision for the flesh to fulfill its lusts (13:11-14)

I am wise in what is good and simple concerning evil, and my God of peace crushes satan under my feet (16:19,20)

God reveals to me by His Spirit the things which He has prepared for me who loves Him (2:9,10)

I have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that I may know the things that have been freely given to me by God. I have the mind of Christ (2:16)

I judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts (4:5)

All things are lawful for me, but all things are not helpful. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any (6:12)

I speak with the tongues of men and of angels. And I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge (13:1,2)

Speaking in tongues, I am speaking not to men but to God, for no one understands me; however in the Spirit I speak mysteries (14:2)

When I speak in a tongue I also interpret (14:13)

I pray with the spirit, and I also pray with the understanding. I sing with the spirit, and I also sing with the understanding (14:15)

God has shined in my heart to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ (4:6)

The love of Christ compels me (5:14)

I regard no one according to the flesh (5:16)

I am alive together with Christ Jesus. I no longer walk according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air. I no longer fulfill the desires of the flesh and of the mind (2:1-3)

I am God's own handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, born anew that I may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for me - taking paths which He prepared ahead of time - that I should walk in them, living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for me to live (2:10 AMPC)

God makes known to me the mysteries of His Kingdom (3:3)

God grants me to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in my heart through faith; that I, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height - and to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that I may be filled with the fullness of God (3:16 -19)

I walk worthy of the calling of God with all lowliness and gentleness, with longsuffering, bearing with others in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (4:1-3)

I no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles walk, in the futility of their mind, having their understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart; who, being past feeling, have given themselves over to lewdness, to work all uncleanness with greediness (4:17-19)

I imitate God; I walk in love as Christ has also loved me by giving Himself for me, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling aroma (5:1,2)

I walk as a child of light in all goodness, righteousness and truth; I have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness (5:8,11)

I walk circumspectly, not as a fool but as wise, redeeming the time because the days are evil (5:15)

I understand what the will of God is (5:17)

I am being filled with the Spirit, speaking to others in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in my heart to the Lord, giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the Name of my Lord Jesus Christ, submitting to others in the fear of God (5:18-21)

I am obedient to my masters with fear and trembling in sincerity of heart as to Christ; I know that whatever good I do, I will receive the same from the Lord (6:5,8)

I am strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. I put on the whole armor of God that I may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. I stand therefore, having girded my waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness and having shod my feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all taking the shield of faith with which I am able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. I take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God; praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints (6:10-18)

Utterance is given to me that I open my mouth boldly to make known the mysteries of the gospel (6:19)

Philippians

My love abounds still more and more in knowledge and all discernment; therefore I approve the things that are excellent (1:9,10)

I do nothing through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind I esteem others better than myself. I look out not only for my interests, but also the interests of others. This mind is in me which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross (2:3-8)

I do not set my mind on earthly things. For my citizenship is in heaven, from which I also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ (3:19,20)

I am in the spirit, rejoicing to see good (2:5)

I walk in Christ (2:6)

Since I was raised with Christ, I seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. I set my mind on things above, not on things on the earth (3:1,2)

The peace of God rules in my heart, to which I was called in one body; and I am thankful (3:15)

The Word of Christ dwells in me richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing others in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in my heart to the Lord (3:16)

I obey my masters in all things, in sincerity of heart, fearing God (3:22)

The Word of God effectively works in me who believes (2:13)

I am taught by God to love others; and indeed I do so toward all the brethren, and I increase more and more (4:9,10)

I aspire to lead a quiet life, to mind my own business and to work with my hands, as I have been commanded, that I may walk properly toward those who are outside, and that I may lack nothing (4:11,12)

I am not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake me as a thief. I am a son of light and son of the day. I am not of the night nor of darkness. Therefore I do not sleep, as others do, but I watch and I am sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and as a helmet the hope of salvation (5:4-6,8)

I rejoice always and pray without ceasing; in everything I give thanks for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for me. I do not quench the Spirit. I do not despise prophecies. I test all things and hold fast what is good (5:16-21)

Second Thessalonians

The Lord directs my heart into the love of God and into the patience of Christ (3:5)

First Timothy

My love is from a pure heart, from a good conscience and from sincere faith (1:5)

According to the prophecies previously made concerning me, by them I wage the good warfare, having faith and a good conscience (1:18,19)

I guard what was committed to my trust, avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge (6:20)

Second Timothy

I serve God with a pure conscience (1:3)

God has not given me a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind (1:6,7)

I hold fast the pattern of sound words which I have heard, in faith and love which are in Christ Jesus (1:13)

The Holy Scriptures make me wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus (3:15)

I am watchful in all things, I endure afflictions, and I fulfill my ministry (4:5)

Titus

I am obedient to my masters and well pleasing in all things, not answering back, not pilfering, but showing all good fidelity and I adorn the doctrine of God my Savior. For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to me, teaching me that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts I should live soberly, righteously, and godly in the present age, looking for the blessed hope and appearing of my great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for me, that He might redeem me from every lawless deed and purify His own special me, zealous for good works (2:9-14)

I am subject to rulers and authorities, to obey and be ready for every good work (3:1)

Hebrews

God speaks to me by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds (1:2)

Angels are ministering spirits sent forth to minister for me who will inherit salvation (1:14)

I give earnest heed to the things I have heard lest I drift away (2:1)

I believe and so I enter His rest (4:3)

The Word of God is life and power to me, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of my soul and spirit, and of my joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of my heart (4:12)

Solid food belongs to me who is full of age, who by reason of use have my senses exercised to discern both good and evil (5:14)

I daily taste the good Word of God and the powers of the age to come (6:5)

I do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through faith and patience inherit the promises (6:12)

I do all things according to the pattern God shows me (8:5)

This is the covenant that God has made with me: He has put His laws in my mind and written them on my heart; He is my God and I am His. No one teaches me saying, "Know the Lord," for I know Him. For He has been merciful to my unrighteousness, and my sins and my lawless deeds He will remember no more (8:10-12)

This is the covenant God has made with me: He has put His laws into my heart, and in my mind He has written them; my sins and lawless deeds He remembers no more (10:16,17)

I choose rather to suffer affliction with the people of God than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin. I esteem the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in the world for I am looking to the reward (11:25,26)

I endure all things because I see Him who is invisible (11:27)

Since I am surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, I lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily ensnares and I run with endurance the race that is set before me, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of my faith who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. I consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest I become weary and discouraged in my soul (12:1-3)

I do not despise the chastening of the Lord, nor am I discouraged when He rebukes me. For who the Lord loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives (12:5,6)

The Lord chastens me for my profit, that I may be a partaker of His holiness (12:10)

I pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which I will not see the Lord: looking carefully lest any root of bitterness springing up causes trouble (12:14,15)

I entertain strangers, for by so doing I have unwittingly entertained angels (13:2)

I remember those who rule over me, who have spoken the Word of God to me, whose faith I follow, considering the outcome of their conduct (13:7)

I am not carried about with various and strange doctrines. For my heart is established by grace (13:9)

I obey those who rule over me and I am submissive, for they watch out for my soul, as those who must give account (13:17)

I am confident that I have a good conscience, in all things desiring to live honorably (13:18)

The God of peace who brought up my Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, makes me complete in every good work to do His will, working in me what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever (13:20,21)

James

I am swift to hear, slow to speak and slow to wrath (1:19)

I am a doer of the Word, and not a hearer only, deceiving myself (1:22)

I do not stumble in word, I am a perfect man, able also to bridle my whole body (3:2)

I am wise and understanding; I show by good conduct that my works are done in the meekness of wisdom (3:13)

My wisdom that is from above is pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy (3:17)

First Peter

I submit myself to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake (2:13)

I am submissive to my masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the harsh. For this is commendable, if because of conscience toward God I endure grief, suffering wrongfully (2:18,19)

The end of all things is at hand; therefore I am serious and watchful in my prayers (4:7)

I am submissive to my spiritual elders and I am clothed with humility, for God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble. Therefore I humble myself under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt me in due time (5:5,6)

I am sober and vigilant; because my adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour (5:8)

Second Peter

I have the prophetic Word confirmed, which I heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in my heart (1:19)

My conduct is holy and godly, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God. According to His promise, I look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, looking forward to these things, I am diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless (3:11-14)

First John

I walk in the light as God is in the light (1:7)

I have an anointing from the Holy One and I know all things. The anointing I received from the Father abides in me, and I do not need that anyone teach me; but as the same anointing teaches me concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught me, I will abide in Him. I abide in Him, that when He appears, I may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming (2:20,27,28)

I do not believe every spirit, but I test every spirit, whether they are of God. By this I know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that does not confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God (4:1-3)

I am of God. He who knows God hears me; he who is not of God does not hear me. By this I know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error (4:6)

God's commandments are not burdensome to me (5:3)

I know that the Son of God has come and has given me an understanding, that I may know Him who is true (5:20)

God rejoices greatly that I walk in truth, as I have received commandment from Him (4)

Third John

God has no greater joy than to know that I walk in truth, and for sure I walk in truth (4)

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

I read and hear the words of the prophecy in the Book of Revelation, and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is near (1:3)

Jesus gives me some of the hidden manna to eat and a white stone, and on the stone a new name written which no one knows except I who receives it (2:17)

I go up to heaven and God shows me things to come (4:1)

I follow the Lamb wherever He goes (14:4)

My Jesus is coming quickly! Blessed am I who keeps the words of the prophecy of the book of revelation (22:7)

Blessed am I who does His commandments, I have the right to the tree of life, and I enter through the gates into the city (22:14)
