WHAT IS FINANCIAL PROSPERITY?

Book pages: 10-12

First of all, God wants us to prosper.

Psalms 35:27; 3 John 2

True Financial Prosperity is when God – with or without – money provides for all your immediate needs and assignment, and you are content and grateful with that.

NB: Generosity is always an assignment for everybody.

Philippians 4:19, Luke 22:35

Immediate needs

Matthew 6:34

Generosity is an assignment that is also supplied for

2 Corinthians 9:8

Needs or assignments are not to be met with what you have stolen, withheld, or wrongfully acquired

James 5:1-6, Malachi 3:8, 10

Contentment (see below)

Being truly prosperous has little or nothing to do with how well you are doing in comparison to other people.

2 Corinthians 10:12

Being truly prosperous has little to do with the amount of money you have, nor the kind of things you possess.

1 Kings 17:1-6 and Genesis 39:1-3, 23

God supplied Jesus' needs using people

Luke 8:1-3

Be content, otherwise . . .

1 Timothy 6:6-10
